

Boulton the 23 day Anno 1614 My Deare & weli-beloued friend Roger Hay-dore Although thou be confirmed in bonds but not in the spirit remoue from me yet in thy ouer-flowings of loue & life w^t: Luns^t at this time art thou near the doore unto me, & I do embray her in my arme of loue & kyngnesse w^t: An holly kyss, & being herbilled w^t: loue ~~and~~ fynge out towards her in f^r: w^t: Did Oget it could not bat signifys somethyng herof unto her also my tonge is too shart to solaw it yet I desire I may be full of her, arb I many a tyme haue folt her as I do no & haue folt her in so many heauenly opportunityes w^t: halfe boord affordeth, by our god, who is woxys of maries for they are hit dest he doth so largly extend his louing & kindnesse & merites dayly to hero f^r: loue him & wait upon him, my deare loue is to he dest of thy fellow prisoners who are sufferours w^t: her, for he truly of her w^t: will be but for Aggryon ~~for~~ lord I am prived in my own ded time, will worke your delivrance Also he sowle of men combin together ag^t: you for he will not suffer any thyng to be done to any who are faithfully givyn up to do best will ful what will be done to his glory & honour, I do demand her in the loue wherew^t: I haue already saluted her my friend

Winear Pemberton?

Boulton

7mo 23. 1674.

To

Roger Hay dock
Lancaster?