

Lo: fa

My duty to you remembred this is to acquaint you I am in good health & have gotten a place in the gaol in a bed & I hope now shall do well & at present I do not understand by me or any of us shall have our liberty to come home to any of us shall have at present & hath given us a charge by none to go to any meeting in the town but we intend to have our meeting in the gaol for fear of it was Margaret: for are both prisoners committ us to prison which I will at Preston but I could not send it away there is a session to be kept the 10th day of this month & whether they will let do any thing with us then or no I can not tell the sessions was dismissed for want of Justices or else it should have been the 10th tuesday after Easter so with my best love to all & the rest of friends in general I kept your duty full for

La: Tayl
May 1st Day
1690

- Philo: Pomberton

卷之三

and Dick, and in Britain was turned to look upon the one saying there were now bound to be many more than in the old days owing to the increasing population. The old, and indeed the new, were left, and left to their own affairs, and leaving all the honours and wealth owing to be a right to those who were in the place.

卷之三

Letter from Phineas P. to his father showing who was in prison with him. 29

To da.

My duty to you remembred. This is to acquaint you yt I am in good health & have gotten a place in & of castle to a bed & I hope we shall do well, & at present I do not understand yt we or any of us shall have our liberty to com home for they ~~are~~ are som thing harsh & cruel at present & hath given us a charge yt none do go to any meeting in the townes but we intend to have our meeting in the castal for ~~free~~ frances Dun & margret fell over both prisoners. I have here sent you a copye writing by they committ us to prison which I writt at Preston but I could not send it away; there is a sessions to be kept the 10th day of this month & whether they will do anything with us then or no I can not tell. The sessions was dismissed for want of Justices or else it should have bee the ~~second~~ ^{secon} tuesday after easter so with my deare love to you & the rest of friends in general I Rwt of your dutifull son Phineas Pemberton

La: castel

May ye 1 day

1670

To Phineas Pemberton
In Pensylvania

Deare ffrod: Phineas Pemberton

In that love wherein the Lord hath been pleased to entred of his mercye unto my soule & bodye (blessed be his name) and hereby in some measure to present while upon mee ffor to lose him againe in a measure of this ~~locke~~ and thou often brought up in my remembrance & more unto mee though our bodyes far separated, and thought by tame of my acquaintance with them was in my minorite when thou wfas in my fathers ffamilye, yett thy truthlike behaviour & ffidelitye hath

